TECH QUIZ

Event Description:

Tech Quiz is the quiz segment of CODEATHON'26 checking the knowledge, activeness and consciousness of the participants. Participants will compete with each other to answer questions on various topics. The questions will cover a wide range of subjects, such as history, science, literature, technology and more. The questions in the quiz will be multiple-choice, fill- in-the-blank. The level of difficulty varies from easy questions that most people should know to more challenging questions that only the most knowledgeable participants can answer. The event will lead to the perfect thriller and adrenaline rush in the participants as well as in the audience through different rounds of pen-paper test, audio and video.
